May—June 2018

Hopefully everyone survived Snow Storm Evelyn and that we are done with snow until right before Christmas. Our March lesson “Essential Oils” was canceled to a snowstorm also. So enough is enough! We had a small turnout for our International Night. Deanna Zernicke was interesting to listen to and see her power point of her trip to Africa last Summer. Those in attendance seemed to enjoy it. Questions were asked throughout and then more discussion during refreshments. An “Africa Coffee Biscuit” and “African Fruit Slushie “ were served. Looking forward to our Spring Banquet to honor 12 ladies who have been in HCE for more then 50 years. Always a good time for socialization along with good food. Remember your item or items for the Silent Auction. Look forward to seeing a lot of you then. Money from Silent Auction goes towards the Scholarship Fund.

- ◇ Be sure and get your HCE “Healthy Life Style Surveys” to Sandy Wendorff by ASAP. She needs to compile them all and send information onto State by June 1st, 2018.
- ◇ Next report due to the State by June 10th is the HCE County Contribution Report, so please mail them to me, Helen Raddant by June 5th, 2018.
- ◇ Our Brat Stand dates at Charlies are August 9th, 10th, 11th. There will be a sign up sheet in the next Satellite.
- ◇ Bake sale at Farmers Market will be September 1st, 2018.
- ◇ Also on Labor Day weekend we will be at the Shawano County Fair, so hopefully I will see some of you there.
- ◇ We will again have a booth set at the fair. In August the Executive Board will be planning that.

Have a great Summer. Helen Raddant

$350 HCE Scholarship Winner!!

Patrick Brodhagen, Bonduel is the 2018 recipient of the HCE Scholarship. Patrick is the son of Roy & Kim Brodhagen of Bonduel. He is currently enrolled at UWGB Studying Environmental Science/Geoscience and has plans on pursuing a Master's degree.

Patrick is an active member in SLO Foods Group, PEAC, and in the Geology Club. He is also very involved with two internships at UWGB, one of which is managing the campus hoop house along with other duties and also a research assistant for the Cofrin Center for Biodiversity. At home on the family 275 tree farm Patrick has gathered hands-

Learn-A-Lot

Learn-A-Lot is still taking used greeting cards to use for making new cards for King Veterans Home. You don't need to take cards apart, because they also use the verses and the pictures. You can drop them off at the court house, bring them to a monthly lesson or if you know someone from that club you can contact them. They appreciate all cards, or if you have card stock they will use that to. Contact information for Learn-A-Lot is Priscilla King at 715-853-6600.

Brat Stand at Charlies

Our dates this year for our Fund raiser to help pay for the books for Wisconsin Bookworms program are August 9th, 10th and 11th. So keep those dates in mind. There will be a sign up sheet in next Satellite. Just a tidbit of information, we already had to sign up for 2019 at Charlies. Sign up began at 7:00 a.m. and went until dates were filled. Knowing people arrive early to get dates they have in mind, I was there at 5:15 a.m. and I was 13th in line. The 1st person was there at 3:27 a.m. and then a lady said she was shortly after that. Some had brought their fold up chairs and were sitting but others just stood as I did. But we have dates for next year.

Bake Sale at Farmer's Market

Looking further in the year we will be at the Farmer's Market on September 1st. Yes, I know it's Labor Day weekend but it's just for the morning to set up and sell. Still plenty of time to go to the Fair. I will be calling clubs and individuals about 2 weeks before just as a reminder. The money we make also helps for our annual Scholarship and if needed for Wisconsin Bookworms. So knowing we have great bakers we can show our expertise and make some money doing it.

More info in next satellite.

Please give your reports to your club president to be compiled for your club.

HCE Executive Board Meeting

February 27, 2018

Helen Raddant called the meeting to order at 5:40 pm. We opened with Homemaker Creed I. Members in attendance were Helen Raddant, Carol Sybeldon, Sandra Smith, Ellie Borre, JoAnn Fehrman and Janet Lane. Carol made a motion to accept the Nov. 29th minutes with 2 corrections. Sandy S. 2nd the motion. JoAnn F gave the treasurer's report. Janet L made a motion to accept the report and Carol S. 2nd the motion.

No correspondence. Carol S. gave the Center I report. For Kitchen Maids, they had their meeting Feb. 19th, they discussed playing bingo at Oakhaven in March, and April 13th. They will serve a meal for Sam 25 and discussed the Healthy Life Style program, will adopt an additional family at Christmas and gave aid to a family in the Bowler area that had a fire. They are also looking at making shawls and checking into that. Sandy S reported on the Bizi-Bells for Center II, they are looking how to donate to the WE Care school aid program at Zion and their summer picnic in July and enjoyed the lesson on Down Sizing. Learn-A-Lot discussed Portugal & Great Britain for the international countries, had an information class

An EEO/AA employer, University of Wisconsin-Extension provides equal opportunities in employment and programming, including Title VI, IX and ADA requirements. Persons with disabilities who require alternative means for communication of program information (Braille, large print, audiotape, etc.) should contact Kara Skarlupka— Healthy Families & Communities Coordinator for Shawano County. Please do so as early as possible prior to the program or activity so that proper arrangements can be made. Requests are kept confidential. 711 (Wisconsin Relay) on car safety, and other information topics. Ellie gave the Center III report on W.I.S.C. They attended the Down Sizing class and also discussed washing fruits and vegetables but not meats. Navarino Merri Maids went over the Down Sizing class and attended the Spring Event planning meeting at Landstad. Landstad Ladies talked about getting ready for the Spring Event planning meeting and making Valentine cards for their Secret Pals.

Bookworms brought up that Carol S would read at Stockbridge March and April. For New Business we talked about following up on the Spring Event meeting and making a desert for the Spring Event. International night will be at Qualheim's on April 19th and discussed what we would have for snacks or to eat and Deanna will get a thank you gift. Since we don't have a FLE right now we are waiting for someone from Shawano County Family and Healthy Living when the position is filled. Many people would like to acknowledge Nancy Schultz's contribution to the HCE program and make her an Honorary HCE member.

Next meeting will be May 22nd, at 5:30, place to be announced. Closed with the Prayer Creed and meeting adjourned.

Ms. Senior Homemaker Pageant

This is a yearly event focusing on seniors age 55 to infinity. Whether in a facility or their private residence, handicapped or ambulatory, candidates have an opportunity to feel good about themselves and leave with memories not only for them but for their families.

They compete in the following areas: 1) making their favorite dessert with or without help; 2) sharing a story about their favorite outfit or talent; 3) working a multi tasking table doing dishes, folding laundry, taking care of a crying doll while answering a telemarketing call all within 3 minutes; and 4) answering an unknown Ms. Homemaker Pageant question.

While in some sense this event is competitive, every candidate is a winner as she can walk away feeling like she added one more thing to her resume.

Everyone is a winner as each candidate will walk away with beautiful gifts donated by community businesses. In addition to gifts, the winner receives a crown, sash, flowers, and the reign for one full year.

It is a great event for all ages and is guaranteed to leave you and your family with lasting memories as you enjoy a fun-filled afternoon of entertainment including free admission, delicious snacks and a chance to win a beautiful door prize. This year's special guest is "Elvis John" who will melt you into memories of your earlier years.

Please join us on June 14, 2018 from 1:00pm to 4:00pm at the Shawano County Park (Indoor Pavilion) W5785 Lake Drive, Shawano, WI 54166. Any questions please contact Amy Thusius at 1-715-745-4421 or Mary Beilfuss at 1-715-250-4900. See you in June!!
